DETAILED ACTION

1. The Office acknowledges Applicant's preliminary amendment filed on March 7, 2005.

Claims 1-21 are pending.

2. It is noted that the method Claims 7, 14-16 and 17 lack essential elements and steps, making them difficult to determine how the methods are related based on their technical features.

For the purpose of restriction, Claims 7, 14-16 and 17 are listed as Groups II, III and IV.

Correction is required.

3. It is noted that Claim 10 recites the limitation "said surfactant" in Claim 7. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in Claim 7. For the purpose of restriction, Claim 10 is assumed to be dependent on Claim 9. Correction is required.

Election/Restrictions

4. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

5. This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-6 and 21, drawn to the technical feature of a HBV precore protein.

Group II, claim(s) 7-14, drawn to the technical feature of a method of detecting HBV precore protein using a precore-specific antibody.

Group III, claim(s) 15 and 16, drawn to the technical feature of a method of determining the value of precore/core protein in a sample by determining the value of HBe antigen.

Group IV, claim(s) 17, drawn to a method of using the determination of the HBV precore protein.

Group V, claim(s) 18 and 19, drawn to the technical feature of a diagnostic reagent comprising an antibody against HBV precore protein.

Art Unit: 1648

Group VI, claim(s) 20, drawn to the technical feature of a method of detecting an antibody against HBV precore protein.

6. The inventions listed as Group I-VI are not related to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features. The technical feature of Group I appears to be isolated HBV precore protein that has an ability of forming a core-like article. However, Schlicht teaches HBV 22-kDa precore protein that can form particles (J. Virology, Vol. 65, No. 12, p. 6817-6825, 1991, cited in IDS). The technical feature of Group I cannot be a special technical feature under PCT Rule 13.2 because the technical feature is shown in the prior art. As set forth above, each group of Groups I-VII requires a technical feature that is not required by any of the other groups. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

10. The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

8. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

9. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

10. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

11. In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

12. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
